The Community Giving Project will be from February 13 through 28, 2021 and members

- 1. Choose an organization and write a check directly to the organization. A tax deductible receipt will be mailed back to you directly. Notify Michelle Kirwin, Treasuer of your donation.
- 2. Write a check to Alpha Delta Chapter of DKG. All money collected will be divided between the organizations. No tax deductible receipt will be given.

*New Beginnings, P.O. Box 75125, Seattle, WA 98175 have two way of giving. They are as follows:

New Beginnings empowers survivors and mobilizes community awareness and action to end domestic violence. New Beginnings is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization.

*Doney Coe Pet Clinic, 2212 Queen Anne Ave. N. #702, Seattle, WA 98109-2312 Veterinary care for homeless and low income families. Louise Garbe, past Alpha Delta President, and a founding member of the Doney Coe Pet Clinic encouraged members to support this organization. Doney Coe Pet Clinic is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization.

*Seattle's Union Gospel Mission – Hope Place, P.O. Box 202, Seattle WA 98111-0202 Hope Place is a 12month residential recovery program designed to help women and children caught up in cycles of abuse and addiction break free from destructive behaviors and relationships through the power of Jesus Christ. Hope Place is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization.

*Denny Dual Language Program, Seattle Public Schools - Make checks to: Alpha Delta Chapter of DKG, for: Scholarships/Grant account

Patricia E. Gomez, Alpha Delta member and contact person will manage scholarship.

Seattle Public Schools are not classified as a 501(c)(3) charitable organization, however, the provisions of IRC Section 170 govern donations and grants to the district.

Delta Kappa Gamma Society is a not-for-profit organization classified under section 501(c)(6) of the U.S. International Revenue Code. Contributions to section 501(c)(6) organizations are not deductible as charitable contributions on the donor's federal income tax return. They may be deductible as trade or business expenses if ordinary and necessary in the conduct of the taxpayer's business. 501(c)(6) organizations may engage in political campaign intervention activities so long as such activities do not represent their primary activity i.e. UNICEF, legislative actions concerning women, children, and education.